Enclosed you will find an updated comprehensive guide for our Jewish community focused on special needs and disabilities: From A to Z: Special Needs and Disabilities Jewish Resource Guide. The Jewish Federation of Greater Washington is proud to lead efforts locally and nationally to serve our community.

This guide provides individuals, families and friends with information about locating social service agencies, educational resources and congregational support in the Greater Washington area. The directory is a collaborative project among The Jewish Federation of Greater Washington, the Partnership for Jewish Life and Learning and the inter-agency Special Needs Professional Advisory Committee. The extensive content reflects the increase in innovative services and opportunities for individuals with special needs and disabilities in our Jewish community.

We are confident that all segments of our community will benefit from this guide by better understanding the resources available to support an independent and fulfilling life. Our programs are constantly expanding and changing. We encourage you to check periodically for updates about special needs resources by visiting the Partnership for Jewish Life and Learning web site at www.pjll.org or the Jconnect web site at www.jconnect.org.

CAPITAL CAMPS AND RETREAT CENTER
Capital Camps is the Jewish community’s overnight camp and retreat center. Its goal is to build Jewish identity by offering camp and retreat services to any child, adult or organization who wishes to participate in one of its programs or use the facility as part of another group. Capital Camps offers a special needs overnight camp program and provides significant financial support to families of special needs campers who qualify through Capital Camp’s confidential financial screening process. In addition, its state-of-the-art facility is ADA compliant.

CHARLES E. SMITH LIFE COMMUNITIES
The Charles E. Smith Life Communities fulfills Jewish values by providing a continuum of quality services for elders and their families that respect the dignity of each individual. CES Life Communities includes five residences and outpatient medical care, all of which can accommodate special needs older adults: the Hebrew Home of Greater Washington provides long-term care and rehabilitative services; Ring House and Revitz House provide independent living services; and Landow House offers assisted living services. All residences are handicapped accessible. Individuals with special needs may be accommodated in the Hebrew Home’s volunteer program. CES Life Communities is a partner agency of, but does not receive funds from, The Jewish Federation of Greater Washington.

FRIENDSHIP CIRCLE
The Friendship Circle’s unique approach brings together teenage volunteers and children with special needs for hours of fun and friendship. These shared experiences empower children with special needs while enriching the lives of everyone involved. Children with special needs bloom and gain the confidence they need to make the most of their abilities and talents. Teenage volunteers learn the priceless value of giving, the curative power of friendship, and the vital importance of integrating children with special needs into our communities.

GALLAUDET UNIVERSITY HILLEL
Hillel of Gallaudet University provides opportunities for deaf, hard-of-hearing and hearing Jewish students to freely explore and express their Jewish identity without any communication barriers. As a member of Gallaudet’s Office of Campus Ministries, Hillel provides Jewish students with the opportunity to celebrate Jewish religious life both on campus and as members of the metropolitan Washington Jewish community. They experience Jewish culture through Israeli movie nights, Israeli dancing, guest lecturers and trips to local Jewish community events. They hone their leadership skills by attending regional and national conferences for Jewish college students.

JCC OF NORTHERN VIRGINIA
The JCC of Northern Virginia’s Special Needs Department strengthens and enriches the Jewish experiences of children, young adults and families through a broad range of activities and ensures that individuals with disabilities have the opportunity to participate in JCC life to the fullest extent of their ability. JCC of Northern Virginia special needs programs include recreational and social classes, summer day camp, a family support group and a Sunday morning non-denominational Jewish enrichment program for special needs children ages 6 to 12. There are also two summer day camp options: Camp Shalom for children with communication challenges and inclusion in the JCC’s Camp Achva. Several work-study programs for young adults with special needs are planned for 2008.

JEWISH FOUNDATION FOR GROUP HOMES
The Jewish Foundation for Group Homes (JFGH) was founded in 1982 to enhance the independence and quality of life for adults with disabilities. JFGH offers long-term support, personal assistance services and training to enhance independent living skills for residents. JFGH’s goal is to provide a beautiful home and a warm and caring family for residents through a variety of housing arrangements. JFGH runs 20 group homes, three alternative living units and 39 apartments in Maryland, Northern Virginia and the District of Columbia. JFGH also offers an adult day program, residential support services through the Oshinsky Apartment Program and numerous volunteer opportunities.

JCONNECT
Jconnect is the premier low barrier, customer friendly gateway for connection and engagement into the Jewish community through information and referral, welcoming programs, volunteering and community events and programs. Jconnect brings together the resources and expertise of JIRS (Jewish Information and Referral Service), JVC (Jewish Volunteer Connection) and the Community Calendar into one holistic entity, providing:

- Help to families with special needs to access resources in our community
- Responses to inquiries about everything in the Jewish community, including social welfare concerns, synagogues, youth groups, preschools and Jewish referrals for seniors, their caregivers and their adult children.
- A comprehensive web site for the community.
- Federation’s welcome wagon programs in our community: ShalomDC for Jewish newcomers and ShalomBaby for new Jewish babies.
- A matching program for volunteering and finding community service opportunities in the Greater Washington area. We can match individuals, sisterhood groups, men’s groups, youth groups and more with specific volunteer projects that match their interest.
- A Community Calendar featuring Jewish events in the Greater Washington area.

JSSA (JEWISH SOCIAL SERVICE AGENCY)
JSSA (Jewish Social Service Agency) provides a comprehensive range of supportive services to individuals of all ages with chronic medical illness, developmental disabilities, physical disabilities, and hearing impairments. JSSA understands that a disability affects not just the individual, but the entire family, and its programs address the needs of each family member. It offers supportive counseling and psychotherapy for individuals, families and groups; and educational and neuropsychological assessments and testing as needed. JSSA’s supported employment program includes vocational testing and assessment, job placement, job coaching and educational and skill building workshops. JSSA also offers support services, including case management, life-long advocacy (Caring Partners Program), long-term planning and training in life skills and social skills. To help bolster independent living skills of individuals with special needs, JSSA offers a range of services including homecare, personal care, volunteer shoppers and visitors and escorted transportation to medical appointments.

PARTNERSHIP FOR JEWISH LIFE AND LEARNING

The Partnership for Jewish Life and Learning is dedicated to lifelong Jewish engagement through high-quality educational and identity-building experiences. The Partnership connects people with disabilities and their families to Jewish programs and resources; promotes disability awareness in synagogues and schools; and works with high school students to partner with children and youth with special needs in classrooms (Special Needs Assistance Program or SNAP), youth groups, and through the Friendship Circle. The Partnership provides professional training for educators in preschools, congregational schools, day schools and youth groups, and also trains professionals who work with individuals with disabilities, including youth directors and camp staff. The Partnership can provide guidance to parents about choosing an appropriate school for a child with special needs.

SULAM

Sulam is an educational program committed to giving children with diverse learning needs a comprehensive education in a Jewish day school. Using an innovative, multidisciplinary team approach, Sulam provides a continuum of educational, tutoring and therapy services throughout the school day. Visual arts are infused into the academic program to build upon students’ strengths and interests. A transition support teacher works with high school students and their families to plan for post-secondary education and career awareness. Focus is placed on self-determination skills to ensure that students develop the confidence and skills they need to become motivated, lifelong learners. Program highlights include support in organizational and study skills, instruction in and out of the general classroom, consultative services and staff development.
